ATLANTA, Oct. 1 (In Touch Ministries) – Anyone who has read a newspaper or watched TV recently knows we're living in troublesome times. Gasoline prices are skyrocketing. People are losing their jobs, their homes. The nation is at war. And the stock market is going up and down like a roller coaster.

With more than 50 years of ministry experience, Dr. Charles Stanley has seen this nation go through good times and bad. America's pastor is calling for Americans to pray and read their Bibles during this current economic crisis. "It's time for Christians to cry out to God," Dr. Stanley says. "We desperately need God and revival in this nation. Unless God does something awesome in this nation, we are headed for desperate trouble like we have never seen before."

Most people are looking to President Bush, the Congress, the candidates in the upcoming election and private corporations for answers. But Dr. Stanley recommends turning to another source. "My friend, you need to look in only one place for the answer—the Word of God," Stanley adds, "We better wake up. Stand up, and speak up, and vote up, or whatever we can do to be obedient to Almighty God."

In this weekend's upcoming "In Touch with Dr. Charles Stanley" TV and radio programs, America's pastor specifically addresses some of the current challenges facing our country. In "A Nation in Need of Prayer," Dr. Stanley's insightful teaching helps us understand how the U.S. fell into its current crisis, while providing a practical and biblical way to get out.
