What does it look like to pursue discipleship in community? For some, it could require more intentional participation in community groups or church events. Or you might find yourself having more in-depth conversations about spiritual matters.

Use these cards to help you guide the conversation in your community—from small groups and Bible studies to the dinner table or a gathering of friends.
CONVERSATION STARTERS

⇒ How are you pursuing Christ in your life?
⇒ What does it mean to delight in God?
⇒ How do you plan to live out your faith with other people?

⇒ Are there habits or disciplines in your life that have helped you grow in your faith?
⇒ How have you served others in the last year?
⇒ Can you think of any past struggles that produced good fruit in your life now?

⇒ How often do you discuss your faith with other believers?
⇒ Do you have a spiritual mentor or someone who gives you spiritual guidance?
⇒ Do you regularly confess your sins to and pray with anyone?

⇒ What holds you back from completely trusting God?
⇒ Have you ever neglected opportunities to share your faith?
⇒ What does it look like to practice discipleship with others?
